Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 6, 2007, The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc. (the "Company") completed steps to implement its new Executive Severance Plan ("ESP") with respect to the Company's named executive officers. As previously disclosed in the Company's Proxy Statement dated April 25, 2007, in 2006 the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors approved the ESP to provide severance benefits in certain situations to named executive officers and other senior executives. The ESP, as implemented, is intended to be consistent with the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and the final rules thereunder, issued by the IRS in April 2007. Under the ESP, severance benefits will be provided if the executive's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or the executive resigns with good reason. The ESP as adopted implements the previous action of the Compensation Committee to provide for the following severance periods (during which a participant continues to receive his base salary and medical benefits) for the Company's named executive officers: Michael Roth, 24 months base salary; Frank Mergenthaler, 18 months; John Dooner, 18 months; Stephen Gatfield, 18 months; Philippe Krakowsky, 18 months; and Timothy Sompolski, 18 months. These severance periods will apply unless a longer severance period is provided for in the individual's employment agreement.

Cautionary Statement

This current report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements. Statements in this report that are not historical facts, including statements about management's beliefs and expectations, constitute forward-looking statements. These statements are based on current plans, estimates and projections, and are subject to change based on a number of factors, including those outlined in our 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K under Item 1A, Risk Factors, and other SEC filings. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events.

Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Such factors include, but are not limited to, the following:

- risks arising from material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting, including material weaknesses in our control environment;
- our ability to attract new clients and retain existing clients;
- our ability to retain and attract key employees;
- risks associated with assumptions we make in connection with our critical accounting estimates;
- potential adverse effects if we are required to recognize impairment charges or other adverse accounting-related developments;
- potential adverse developments in connection with the ongoing SEC investigation;
- potential downgrades in the credit ratings of our securities;
- risks associated with the effects of global, national and regional economic and political conditions, including fluctuations in economic growth rates, interest rates and currency exchange rates; and
- developments from changes in the regulatory and legal environment for advertising and marketing and communications services companies around the world.

Investors should carefully consider these factors and the additional risk factors outlined in more detail in our 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K under Item 1A, Risk Factors.
